

5. Best practices, innovation, and distinctiveness (Score80) Claimed=76

Sr.no.	Activity	Distribution of scores	Distribution of Scores	Total Score
1	Best practices: Studios and an art gallery for the students Monthly submissions and stage performances Re-use of waste materials	Outcome: The college has created a designated space for the students of visual arts for studio practice in the attic. This place is also being used as an art gallery for submissions and the display of their artwork. The students of performing arts have been mandated to present monthly performances on stage, and the students of visual arts present their artwork in monthly presentations before the college. These initiatives help them to overcome their stage fright and make them confident performers. The students created mural artwork on the walls using trash as an art material. This initiative helped them to motivate their environment to be clean and reuse waste materials in innovative ways.	10 10	20

The art gallery

Monthly Submissions:

Stage performances:

Re-use of waste materials:

